Chairman of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Board of Directors

Robert Bult, investment advisor at UBS PaineWebber was recently appointed St. Vincent de Paul board chairman. Robert Bult, a St. Vincent de Paul board member for over five years, was elected the new board chair by the twenty-member board based on his leadership ability, dedication to advancing the Organization's mission and long-term strategic planning vision. As a board member, Mr. Bult led the finance committee & has been instrumental in planning a short & long-term operation strategy that will allow St. Vincent de Paul to grow its services to Greater Cincinnati residents in need. Mr. Bult is married with two children & resides in Anderson Township.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul has been helping poor and needy residents of Cincinnati and Hamilton County for more than 135 years. The organization works personally with those in need, regardless of race or creed, to bridge the spiritual, emotional and financial gaps in their lives through neighborhood-based ministries. Last year, members and volunteers provided help to people in need approximately 57,000 times by providing emergency assistance with rent, utilities, transportation, food, clothing, furniture, and companionship. In addition to personal assistance, the Society's programs include the Bank Street Food Pantry, Operation Bootstrap job readiness program, thrift stores providing low-cost and free goods to those in need and other social services.
