Put Yourself in the Picture

Society of St. Vincent de Paul – Cincinnati
2011 Annual Report
Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God....
...Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love.

1 John 4:7–8
Dear Friends,

In some ways the last year has been tougher than most. Our phones have been ringing continuously with over 250 calls a day from families who could not make ends meet. We have a 3–4 month waiting list for mattresses, and our funds frequently run short. Our Vincentian volunteers are visiting more and more families who are asking for help for the first time, and their needs are deep and painful.

Whether they are retired and their fixed income is simply not enough to live on, whether they were born into poverty and trying to break the cycle, or whether they are asking for help for the very first time, those who seek our help are often discouraged and fearful. While each story is different, all of these families have something in common—they’ve all received the gift of hope.

Last year at St. Vincent de Paul, we saw hope restored to thousands of lives because of your commitment to helping neighbors in need. That hope comes in the form of a visit to their home, a conversation among friends to see how we can help, and practical assistance, followed by words of encouragement and prayer.

You will read stories of just a few of the families whose lives have been changed because you answered the call to give. But the need continues. Put yourself in the picture of giving hope. Together we can bring hope, change lives and give help to people and families in crisis by answering Christ’s call to love one another.

God bless you for all you have done to help.

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit. Romans 15:13

Things were already difficult for Jammee and Carl as they struggled to make ends meet. But then came the ultimate sacrifice. “The hardest part was when we had to sell our wedding rings to help pay our bills,” Jammee said. “It was one of the most painful things I’ve ever done, but when you need something for your kids, you just do it.”

What Jammee and Carl needed for their kids was a home. He works at the college where he is studying in hopes of providing a brighter future for his family. She was working as an adminis-

Homelessness Prevention

In 2011, 5,017 families received rental or utility assistance, making St. Vincent de Paul the largest private homelessness prevention provider in Cincinnati. Almost 90% of families assisted by St. Vincent de Paul are able to maintain stable housing at least 6 months after receiving assistance.

Those in need meet personally with our volunteers and staff to alleviate their initial need and work toward long-term solutions with budget counseling, financial literacy classes and other resources.

The unfortunate truth is that for every family that keeps their home, for every light or furnace kept on, there are many other families we simply do not have the resources to help.

“Your gift of $500 will save a family from becoming homeless, a family just like Jammee’s, or maybe a family in your own neighborhood.”

trative assistant until her position was eliminated in a cost cutting move. Suddenly that bright future looked grim.

“I was in training to be a lead administrator,” she said. “Things were going great. But, I was the most recent addition to the program, so when they had to make cuts, I was the first to go.”

Without her income, the bills piled up and the family found themselves on the verge of becoming homeless.

Thanks to you, Jammee and Carl were able to keep their home, and Jammee was able to search for a new job with the confidence of knowing her family would sleep safely at home each night.

“The hardest part was when we had to sell our wedding rings to help pay our bills.”

“It was tough. It was a struggle,” she said. “But now we know our kids are alright. We’ll all be alright, thanks to St. Vincent de Paul.”

After raising their four children and working hard all of their lives, Don and Delia looked forward to retiring together and spending more time with their grandchildren. As they approached retirement, they had money saved away. Then Don suffered a stroke, forcing him to give up the family business. The ensuing medical bills quickly drained the savings that should have supported the couple into their golden years.
The situation worsened when Delia lost her job as an insurance agent following two knee replacements and the time and energy required to take care of her ailing husband. They were suddenly faced with a growing list of prescription medications and limited income with which to pay for them.

“We’ve always paid our bills, but the medical bills and new prescriptions broke us.”

Don and Delia never imagined that they would not be able to afford their vital medications. “We weren’t used to being broke,” Don said. “We’ve always paid our bills, but the medical bills and new prescriptions broke us.”

Out of money and running out of options, the couple was visited by volunteers from their local St. Vincent de Paul conference.

“They were such neat people,” Delia said. “They took the time to listen to our struggles and look at our budget. They were amazed at the cost of our prescriptions and referred us to the St. Vincent de Paul Charitable Pharmacy.”

The Charitable Pharmacy provides the couple with their critical medication at no cost, allowing them to use their limited resources to provide for their other basic needs.

“The people at the pharmacy have been so good to us,” said Don. “We don’t know what we would do without them.”

Charitable Pharmacy

In 2011, the St. Vincent de Paul Charitable Pharmacy filled 39,615 prescriptions valued at $4 million at no cost for our neighbors in need. Thanks to a generous network of pharmaceutical companies and physicians’ offices, for every $1 donated, the Charitable Pharmacy provides $9 of medication to those in need.
On March 15, 2012, Patricia received a call that changed her life forever. Her house was on fire and her 13 year old daughter, Emanie, was at home when it started. “I just thank God everyday that she is okay,” said Patricia, “but we lost everything.”

Homeless and concerned for her children, Patricia turned to her mother for a place to live until they could get back on their feet. However, despite her steady job as a private duty nurse’s assistant, she could not afford to replace what was lost in the fire. Desperate to provide clothing and a permanent home for her
Thrift Stores

Thanks to your generous support, St. Vincent de Paul provided more than $11,093,879 in clothing, furniture and household items at no cost to neighbors in need in 2011. Your donations of gently used items help families like Patricia’s get back on their feet. Proceeds from our seven thrift stores support critical programs including Homelessness Prevention, the Charitable Pharmacy and the Edyth and Carl Lindner Choice Food Pantry.

children, Patricia turned to St. Vincent de Paul.

Thanks to you, St. Vincent de Paul was able to lighten Patricia’s burden by replacing basic necessities lost in the fire, such as clothing, furniture, food, and birth certificates. “They have helped me in so many ways,” said Patricia.

Now her children have the food and clothing they need. Patricia and her family plan to give back by volunteering. “I am very grateful for the things that St. Vincent de Paul has given me,” said Patricia, “and I think it will be a great experience for my children to come back here and volunteer.”

“I am very grateful to St. Vincent de Paul, and I think it will be a great experience for my children to come back here and volunteer.”

Your generous gifts to St. Vincent de Paul not only gave a family the food and clothing they needed to survive, but also the hope and strength to move forward, and give back.

Donations can be dropped off at any of our seven thrift store locations, or call (513) 421-CARE (2273) to schedule a free donation pick-up today.
Angela

Food Pantry Provides Nourishment

Growing up in poverty, Angela watched as her mother constantly struggled to provide for her family. Determined to break the cycle, Angela graduated from high school and enrolled in an electrician program at a local college. At age 21 Angela was supporting herself, attending school full time, completing an internship, and working two jobs. “My days were completely packed from 6 a.m. to 11 p.m.,” said Angela, “but my jobs were not enough to cover my bills, transportation costs, and food.” Angela knew that school needed to be her top priority, but she was out of money, food, and options. Searching for the help and encouragement she needed to continue her education, Angela turned to St. Vincent de Paul.

“Since the day I contacted St. Vincent de Paul, they were by my side through everything,” said Angela. “Whenever I needed food I could go to the St. William’s Food Pantry, and they were always so good to me.”

Angela graduated from college and now works as a successful electrician. She still keeps in touch with her favorite St. Vincent de Paul member. “During those tough times in my life, St. Vincent de Paul was there to pull me through,” said Angela. “I have always tried hard to do things on my own, but at the end of the day, they were there for me when I needed it most.”

Food Pantry

St. Vincent de Paul’s network of 9 neighborhood-based food pantries provides nutritious food to supplement a struggling neighbor’s budget. In 2011, your support allowed our food pantries to serve our neighbors in need more than 70,000 times, including more than 23,000 times through the Edyth & Carl Lindner Choice Food Pantry in the West End.

If you were to pass Angela on the street one morning, you would never guess that such a confident young woman, carrying books and wearing a smile, would be going home hungry at night with no food for dinner. For every neighbor we feed, there are still many people in Greater Cincinnati who go to bed hungry and alone. A gift of just $60 will feed three families for one week.
Millie & Larry
Home Visits Provide Relief

An invitation from an old friend inspired Larry to join a St. Vincent de Paul conference, but it was an unlikely new friend whose faith and courage showed him how to grow spiritually through service to others.

Shortly after Larry joined the St. Bernard Conference of St. Vincent de Paul, he was invited to deliver Christmas gifts and cards to Millie, a 90-year-old neighbor in need. During his visit, Larry sat with Millie, listening to her struggles and learning of her needs. A few days after the home visit, Millie and her rambunctious dachshund hounds were still on Larry’s mind. “I cannot explain it,” said Larry, “but the spirit moved me to visit Millie and her dogs again. I brought her some homemade soup and we talked for hours like old friends.”
Conference Membership

Last year, 880 members from our 56 conferences (neighborhood-based volunteer groups) visited the homes of people in need 8,801 times, helping 47,827 people in every Cincinnati and Hamilton County community. They provided their neighbors with basic necessities such as clothing, furniture, rent and utility assistance and food. More importantly, they fostered hope by giving emotional and spiritual support on a person-to-person basis to those who needed it most.

Larry continued to visit Millie, bringing her clothes from the St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Stores, her favorite foods from a St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry, and other necessities. Over time, they became like family, sharing stories, celebrating birthdays, and discussing their faith and passion for helping people.

Millie is close with her neighbors, and they all help each other when they can. But sometimes the need is greater than the combined resources of friends.

Millie shares those stories of her neighbors in need with Larry, and he does what he can to help. “I just want to show up at their door step with their need,” said Larry. “I do not pry or ask questions, but if they invite me in and want to talk, I listen. That is how you really get to know people, you just listen.” Millie simply beams over Larry. “A lot of people in this neighborhood would be going hungry if it were not for Larry,” said Millie. “He is a Godsend.”

Together, Larry and Millie have helped countless people in their community, giving them the same love and respect they would give to any friend. “It is the relationships that keep me going,” said Larry, “and the feeling I get when I can bring a friend relief from their desperate situation.”

Your local parish’s St. Vincent de Paul conference needs more volunteers who can offer assistance through person-to-person visits in your area. Picture yourself putting your faith into concrete action and learning first-hand what Jesus means when he says, “Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.” To learn how you can bring hope to neighbors in need—and maybe make some new friends in the process—contact Gary Horton at (513) 562-8841 x234 or ghorton@SVDPCincinnati.org.
Ozanam Center

The Spirit of Service

The Ozanam Center for Service Learning changes the way you see the world and your role in it by engaging diverse individuals in service, education and reflection on spiritual values. These eye-opening immersion experiences challenge retreat participants to see those who are struggling not as “the poor,” but as neighbors.

After a retreat with her young adult group, Angela said, “I was faced with the reality of the hardships and stereotypes of poverty.
“I was given a chance to reflect on how I personally can make a change in my own backyard.”

I literally had a chance to walk in the footsteps of Cincinnati’s downtrodden and see their neighborhoods and visit their homes.”

Hannah, a retreat participant, said the highlight of her week was, “seeing daily life struggles on home visits and realizing poverty is sometimes just a hand that is dealt—it can happen to anyone.”

Angela and Hannah are among 500 people who participated in retreats at the Ozanam Center in 2011. Invigorated by the Christian call to service, participants are inspired to make an impact and bring lasting change to our community.

“My experience at St. Vincent de Paul was eye-opening, inspiring, invigorating and spiritually enlightening,” said Bill, after participating in a retreat with a group from his church. “I was given a chance to reflect on how I personally can make a change in my own backyard.”

Vincentian Volunteers of Cincinnati

The Ozanam Center also offers young adults an opportunity to explore their faith more fully and engage in service in a deeper way through Vincentian Volunteers of Cincinnati (VVC). VVC is a yearlong service program that invites young adults to serve as full time stipend volunteers at St. Vincent de Paul and live in intentional community together in the West End. If you are interested in learning more, call (513) 562-8841 ext. 239 or email VVC@SVDPcincinnati.org.

The Ozanam Center offers custom designed retreats that are engaging, challenging and illuminating. Participants range from schools to churches to young professional organizations. We offer both faith-based and secular retreats, from day-long to weekend or week-long experiences in our overnight facility at the St. Vincent de Paul West End Outreach Center.

For more information, call (513) 562-8841 ext. 231 or email Ozanam@SVDPcincinnati.org.
Programs and Drives

Fan and Air Conditioner Drive

Picture yourself... sick and weak with no source of relief from the summer heat.

Summer seems endless and hopeless to our sick and elderly neighbors who have no source of relief from the heat. Because of your generosity, St. Vincent de Paul was able to give 716 fans and 212 air conditioners to people in need.

Bob Rahe Mattress Fund

Picture yourself... without a bed to tuck your child into each night.

A good night’s sleep is essential, especially for a growing child. Every night, hundreds of local children, the elderly and many others sleep on the cold floor because they do not have a bed. Named after a beloved St. Vincent de Paul volunteer whose family initiated the fund, the Bob Rahe Mattress Fund gives the gift of comfort and rest to neighbors in need.

In 2011, thanks to your overwhelming support, St. Vincent de Paul was able to provide 708 beds to local adults and children. A gift of $100 will buy a bed for someone who is sleeping on a cold floor.

5 Cares Coat Drive

Picture yourself... sending your child to school in freezing weather without a coat.

Every winter, our neighbors in need face the freezing weather without a coat. Your donated coats make such a difference in the lives of local children and adults. In 2011, 4,700 coats were collected to keep our neighbors in need warm and protected.

Thank you to our 2011 partners: WLWT News 5, Gold Star Chili, Kemba Credit Union, City Dash, local fire departments, and Stor-All Self Storage.
And now these three remain: faith, hope, and love. But the greatest of these is love.

Kroger and Fox 19
Food from the Heart

Picture yourself... visiting a food pantry for the very first time.

Suburban poverty continues to rise and many of our neighbors are finding themselves on unfamiliar ground. For the first time, they are seeking out assistance to provide meals for their family. Kroger & Fox 19’s Food from the Heart Drive collects non-perishables and donations in barrels at Kroger store locations and through coin-boxes at the checkouts.

Thank you to our 2011 partners: Kroger and Fox 19

Reds’ Canned Food Drive

Picture yourself... deciding between feeding your family and paying the bills.

When baseball season arrives, St. Vincent de Paul partners with the Cincinnati Reds to “Strike out Hunger.” For one game each season, the Cincinnati community comes to see the Reds play ball and fights hunger by donating non-perishables in barrels outside the ballpark. In 2011, we collected over 10,000 pounds of food, enough to provide approximately 8,500 meals to neighbors in need.

Thank you to our 2011 partners: Cincinnati Reds and WLWT News 5.

Holiday Programs

Picture yourself... unable to provide a holiday meal for your family, or a Christmas gift for your child.

More and more families are struggling to make the holidays special for their children. During the 2011 holiday season, you touched the lives of over 6,510 families because of your support of programs such as Thanksgiving and Christmas food baskets, Adopt-A-Family, Angel Toy Program, and Shop with a Bengal. Thank you for giving hope to your neighbors and renewing their holiday spirit.
