

Saint Vincent de Paul Advisory Board of Directors

Becky Catino
Partner
625 Investments

Becky Catino, is a Partner of 625 Investments. She is co-Founder and former co-CEO of Security National Automotive Acceptance Corporation (SNAAC), a Mason-based specialty finance company recognized as one of the fastest growing indirect lenders in the automotive industry in 2011 (Automotive Excellence Awards). She and her husband, Ted, founded the company in 1986. SNAAC received numerous awards, including The Community Service Award from “The Thank You Foundation” in 2011, and was recognized as the Greater Cincinnati Small Business of the Year in 2002. The Catinos sold the company in 2011. At that time, SNAAC employed 125 people in Mason and operated in 30 states. Becky was recognized as Woman of the Year by Ursuline Academy in 2010 and selected to be in Leadership Cincinnati Class 36. She was previously on the Board of Trustees for Miami University's Institute for Entrepreneurship and former Board Chair for Ursuline Academy. She is currently a trustee for the Ursuline Academy Foundation.