

Saint Vincent de Paul Advisory Board of Directors

Dan Hurley
Applied History Associates

Dan Hurley retired as the Director of Leadership Cincinnati July 1, 2016 and from WKRC-TV, where he worked for 36 years, in 2016. Since then, he has served as the interim President of the National Underground Railroad and as the interim host of Cincinnati Edition on 91.7 WVXU (NPR). Dan is the author of five books, including Cincinnati: The Queen City and One Child at a Time: A History of the Children's Home of Cincinnati. Dan is the producer of 20 television documentaries including a seven part series with Charles Kuralt on the history of the region, a history of the Ohio River and a history of Northern Kentucky. He continues to write on leadership for Cincy Magazine.