Lisa Mather

Audit Partner
Cincinnati Office of Ernst & Young

Lisa Mather is an audit partner in the Cincinnati office of Ernst & Young. She has over 22 years of experience serving a broad spectrum of not for profit entities including large health systems, physician practices, and various forms of foundations as a coordinating audit partner. Lisa has experience in large health systems business combinations (acquisitions, divestitures and joint ventures) and dealing with the post integration issues of these transactions. She is also experienced with audits conducted under Government Auditing Standards and the requirements of Circular A-133.

In addition to serving clients, Lisa has participated in Ernst & Young's audit quality review program and been a course instructor for Ernst & Young educational programs. Lisa serves on the board of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Cincinnati, Ohio, the Art Academy of Cincinnati and the finance commission of her parish, Immaculate Heart of Mary.
