Rev. Frank Nation

Vice President Mission and Culture
TriHealth, Inc.

Rev. Frank Nation has been in healthcare for over 20 years serving as a clinical chaplain, pastoral educator, manager, administrator and executive. He joined TriHealth in 2009 and has served as the first Vice President of Mission and Culture for TriHealth for the past three years. In his current role he is primarily responsible for Community Benefits, Theology/Ethics, Spiritual Care, Mission/Values Integration, and Sustainability and is Co-Chair of Trihealth's Leadership Development Institute.

In addition to his role at TriHealth, Rev. Nation serves on several community committees and councils. Rev. Nation serves on the Health Collaborative Community Health Needs Assessment Committee, Hamilton County Public Health Advisory Council, Hamilton County Community Health Implementation Plan Committee, Price Hill Will Board of Trustees, and Hebrew Union College Clinical Pastoral Education Advisory Council. He also serves as a volunteer with the Cincinnati Flying Pig Marathon Medical Tent and as a volunteer chaplain with the City of Monroe Police Department.

Rev. Nation is a graduate of Lee University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Bible and Theology. He received the Lee University School of Religion Alumnus of the Year Award in 2016. He earned his Master of Divinity degree (1997) and Doctor of Ministry Degree (2005) from the Church of God Theological Seminary. Rev. Nation is an Ordained Bishop with the Church of God, a Board Certified Chaplain with the Association of Professional Chaplains, a Certified Educator with the Association for Clinical Pastoral Education and Member of the American College of Healthcare Executives.

Rev. Nation currently lives in Monroe, Ohio with his wife Tracy and their three children Sophia (16), Luke (13) and Micah (10).
