

Saint Vincent de Paul Society Board of Directors

Robert Killins, Jr.
Director of Giving Strategies
Greater Cincinnati Foundation

Robert is Director of Giving Strategies at the Greater Cincinnati Foundation (GCF) where he works to attract and steward donors for the foundation. He also supports GCF's Private Foundation work and manages GCF's Impact Investment program. He has 19 years of foundation experience that includes corporate, private, and community foundations. He joined GCF in January 2010 after a 24 year career at P&G.

Robert has significant non-profit experience as a volunteer, founder, board member and board chair. He served on the Sisters of Charity Ministry Foundation (SCMF) Board for nine years. He previously served on The Leadership Council of the Women's Fund of GCF. Currently he chairs the Seven Hills Neighborhood Houses, Inc. Board. Robert is the Financial Secretary of the West End Community Council. He is a past-president of the Cheers Toastmasters Club of Cincinnati, a downtown Toastmasters club. Robert is a graduate of Leadership Cincinnati – Class XXIII. Robert has a passion for community and economic development and revitalization. He holds an Economic Development Finance Professional Certification from the National Development Council (NDC).

Robert is a graduate of Grambling State University (Louisiana) with a B. A. in French. While attending Grambling, he twice studied in France and is fluent in French. Robert also completed an MBA from Xavier University, Cincinnati, Ohio in 2011. He is a Louisiana native moving to Cincinnati, Ohio in 1985.

Robert is married to Elodie Davis-Killins a New Orleans native and alumna of Grambling State University. Robert and Elodie have three children; Jasmine 27, Nia 20 and Robert III 18.