Partner

Taft Stettinius & Hollister LLP

Ron Christian is a partner with the law firm of Taft Stettinius & Hollister LLP where he concentrates his legal practice on advising nonprofit organizations, charitable foundations, and estate and charitable gift planning. He is licensed to practice law in Ohio and Kentucky and has passed the Kentucky Certified Public Accountants examination. Ron has been listed in The Best Lawyers in America (since 2006) and has been chosen as a Leading Lawyer by Cincinnati Magazine (since 2008) and is listed in Ohio Super Lawyers (since 2010). Ron was a Greater Cincinnati Planned Giving Council Voices of Giving honoree in 2009 and also was inducted into the Working in Neighborhoods Hall of Fame in 2015. He is a frequent speaker on tax topics concerning tax-exempt and nonprofit organizations and charitable giving, and serves as a volunteer on a number of nonprofit organizations including currently the Boards of the Society of St. Vincent DePaul (SVDP), SVDP Charitable Pharmacy, Bayley and the Cincinnati Zoo Foundation, as an Advisory Board member of the Marvin Lewis Community Fund as well as on committees of Cincinnati Children's Hospital, Cincinnati Zoo, Be Concerned, the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra and Ronald McDonald House. He also serves as legal counsel for the Greater Cincinnati Foundation.

Ron was introduced to St. Vincent de Paul by Tamie Sullivan and became engaged in its activities as part of his Leadership Cincinnati project to assist SVDP with getting its charitable pharmacy started. That led him to become one of the initial founding board members of the Pharmacy where he still serves on the Board. He also serves on SVDP's Board as the Pharmacy's liaison board member and on various SVDP committees. Ron and his wife, Vicki, and their two children, David and Caroline, live in Fort Thomas, Kentucky.
