

Saint Vincent de Paul Advisory Board of Directors

Tamara Sullivan

President
Sullivan Communications, Inc.

Tamara Sullivan is president of Sullivan Communications, Inc. As a public relations and marketing consultant with nearly 25 years experience, she is committed to community issues and public service. Current and previous clients include Lighthouse Youth Services, St. Vincent de Paul Charitable Pharmacy, Boys Hope Girls Hope, Hispanics Avanzando Hispanics, TriHealth, BRIDGES for a Just Community, and United Way of Greater Cincinnati. Sullivan is a graduate of Leadership Cincinnati Class XXX. Tamara has served as Executive Director of the Coalition for a Drug-Free Greater Cincinnati, Assistant Vice president for PRIDE -- the National Parents' Resource Institute for Drug Education, Public Information Officer for the Ohio Department of Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services and she has also held positions at the Columbus Area Chamber of Commerce and CET in Cincinnati.

Tamara was instrumental in the creation of the St. Vincent de Paul Charitable Pharmacy and has played a leadership role in many public relations and funding projects during her association with The Society. She is also a two-time chair and current committee member of RetroFittings, St. Vincent's de Paul's fashion show collaboration with the University of Cincinnati's DAAP. She is a graduate of Leadership Cincinnati Class XXX. The Cincinnati USA Regional Chamber named her a WE Celebrate finalist for Social Entrepreneur of the Year in 2012. Tamara holds a B.F.A. and B.S. from the University of Cincinnati.

She lives in Loveland with her husband and two teen-aged sons.