

Saint Vincent de Paul Pharmacy Board of Directors

Liz Carter

Liz Carter leads the Scripps Howard Foundation, creating and directing its strategies and initiatives. She assumed the President and CEO role in 2015 after serving as the Executive Director of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul in Greater Cincinnati.

The Foundation supports philanthropic causes important to The E.W. Scripps Company and the communities it serves, with an emphasis on excellence in journalism. At the crossroads of the classroom and the newsroom, the Foundation is a leader in supporting journalism education, and most recently launched award-winning investigative journalism centers at the University of Maryland and Arizona State University. The Foundation is the operator of one of the news industry's best-known celebrations of American journalistic excellence, the annual Scripps Howard Awards.

Liz also launched the Foundation's first employee-focused, companywide literacy campaign in 2016. In the campaign's first four years, the Foundation has raised $900,000 to purchase books for impoverished children, many of whom live in homes bereft of books.

From 1999 to 2015, Liz led the Society of St. Vincent de Paul in Greater Cincinnati. As its Executive Director, she oversaw a $15 million budget and a team of 340 employees and thousands of volunteers. In her 15 years at the helm of St. Vincent de Paul, Liz oversaw continuous growth, increasing the agency's budget from $1.5 million to $15 million. She led the renovation of St. Vincent de Paul's West End Outreach Center, creation of its robust retreat center and residential year-of-service program, expansion of its membership and thrift stores, and a 140% increase in number of people assisted annually. Liz also helped drive changes in Ohio laws to permit charitable pharmacies in order to create Ohio's first such pharmacy, the St. Vincent de Paul Charitable Pharmacy.

Additional honors include Woman of Influence 2014 by Venue Magazine and WE Celebrate 2011 Non-Profit Woman of the Year by Cincinnati USA Regional Chamber.
