Alison Zlatic
Nativity Vincentian

Alison received her Master's Degree in Educational Leadership from the University of Dayton, having first completed her undergraduate work in Secondary Education at UD. She began her career as a Jesuit volunteer working in a homeless shelter for single adults and then joined the Lalanne program at UD where she taught social studies and theology. She has studied material poverty domestically and internationally through the lens of faith in Cincinnati, Detroit, Bridgeport, CT, Philadelphia, Appalachia, South Dakota, Mexico, El Salvador, Guatemala, and Haiti. She was a member of the team that created the Ozanam Center for Service Learning at St. Vincent de Paul, Cincinnati.

She currently serves as a stay-at-home mom to her five young boys and is a Vincentian and parishioner at Nativity parish in Pleasant Ridge.
