Pamela Farley
St. Joseph West End
Vincentian

Pamela (Ms. Pam) has been committed to service for over forty-eight years, serving as a Vincentian at her local parish, St. Joseph Church, and as a volunteer at St. Vincent de Paul's Liz Carter Outreach Center. Ms. Pam is recognized for her ongoing work advocating for the rights and needs of local senior citizens; assisting people in need on an emergency basis as a Vincentian; and supporting various efforts to enhance her community through work in her local parish.

As the president of the St. Joseph Church Conference, Ms. Pam's main efforts at her local parish have been to care for families in bereavement, supporting them financially and emotionally. Ms. Pam dedicates many of her weekend hours to connecting with those who cannot afford burial and preparing meals for families who have experienced losing a loved one. Ms. Pam is currently the treasurer of the St. Joseph Church Conference.

With constant recognition of the St. Vincent de Paul mission, she fosters hope on a person-to-person basis both at St. Joseph Church and in people's homes as necessary. Ms. Pam embodies the vision of St. Vincent de Paul by continuously bringing faith alive through service to others, one neighbor at a time
