Pete Brown

VP, Digital Future Growth
Western & Southern Financial Group

Pete Brown is the VP, Digital Future Growth at Western & Southern Financial Group. Prior to his current role, Pete was AVP of Digital Strategy for Western & Southern Financial Group, where he was instrumental in launching a marketing & digital center of excellence for the enterprise.

A native of Maine, Pete graduated from the University of Maine with a B.S in Business Administration. He went on to earn an MBA from Duke University's Fuqua School of Business.

Pete is passionate about the Cincinnati community. He is the former co-chair of CSO Encore, the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra's young professional group. Pete is a graduate of the Cincinnati USA Regional Chamber's Leadership Action program, where he helped develop the Business-Education Connectivity Council with Cincinnati Public Schools. He is also a member of the Professional Leadership Network where he is involved with youth mentorship.

Pete enjoys running, traveling, exploring arts and culture, and reading everything he can get his hands on. He is a passionate Duke and New England sports fan, but would very much like to see a Cincinnati team bring home a championship. Pete lives in Mariemont with his amazing wife Kate, and their two young daughters.
