

Food Insecurity in Cincinnati: Did You Know?

- Over 75,000 people received assistance with food through SVDP's pantry network in the past year, more than any other food pantry in Cincinnati.
- SVDP's network of food pantries includes the Becky & Ted Catino Choice Food Pantry in the West End and 13 satellite pantries.
- Neighbors visiting the Becky & Ted Catino Choice Food Pantry hand-select groceries that best fits their family's needs, rather than being handed a pre-packaged box of food.
- In addition to food, SVDP distributes essential items, such as hygiene items and cleaning supplies, which cannot be purchased with SNAP benefits (food stamps).
- The items that cost SVDP the most to stock in its food pantries each month include: fresh meats, canned fruits and vegetables, and personal care supplies.
- On average, the Becky & Ted Catino Choice Food Pantry distributes over 2,600 rolls of toilet paper per month.
- More people are turning to St. Vincent de Paul's network of food pantries for help than ever before. In the final three months of 2022, over 6,400 more individuals received assistance than in the same period in 2021.

Please consider joining this effort to support neighbors facing food insecurity. Thank you!
