St. Vincent de Paul Announces New CEO

Brad McMonigle takes leadership role after successful tenure at Talbert House

CINCINNATI, OH, October 26, 2022 – Following an extensive search over the last three months, St. Vincent de Paul - Cincinnati, a leading non-profit serving neighbors in need across Cincinnati and Hamilton County, is pleased to announce that Brad McMonigle will assume the role of CEO effective Nov. 28, 2022.

“This is an exciting moment for St. Vincent de Paul,” said Alison Zlatic, St. Vincent de Paul Board President. “Brad’s strong commitment to his Catholic faith and proven track record as a servant leader will help lead our organization into its next chapter of growth and opportunity.”

In the past year, St. Vincent de Paul has provided basic needs assistance, such as food, rent and utility assistance, prescription medications, clothing, and furniture, to thousands of families. “I am grateful to have the opportunity to follow in the footsteps of Mike Dunn; he has led St. Vincent de Paul to great heights during his tenure. I am honored to be able to serve the leadership team, staff, Vincentians, and our neighbors in the community. Bringing my experience in the social services field and my faith together to help serve our community aligns with St. Vincent de Paul’s vision ‘to bring faith alive through service to others, one neighbor at a time,’” said McMonigle.
